Jimin is a tenth-grade student at Riverside High School in Austin, Texas. She is an exchange student from Seoul, Korea. The two schools have established a link ten years ago and was exchanging students on a regular basis ever since. She will spend a year in the U.S. away from home. She lives with her host family two blocks from school. Jimin already misses her family and friends, but at the same time, she looks forward to a rewarding year at a completely new school in a totally different environment.
